

The Story of The Pokegama Canoe

Jack and Burl Banks, sons of former Pokegama Inn owners, Basil and Belle Banks, discovered an authentic Native American bark canoe while swimming off the point of the island. They dug it out, cleaned it up, let it dry out, and it was hung from the ceiling of the dining room in the Main Lodge. Though the years it has been moved around a bit. At one point it was hung on the wall in the bar. It fell one day and was damaged. At that point, it was hung above the bar and it hangs there still.
